

Advent 2021

Christmas Roast Colouring

Lavish Christmas feasts were the reserve of the rich during the Tudor and Elizabethan periods, with swan, goose or peacock being the bird of choice for the traditional roast. Wild boar was also popular at Christmas, as was Souse – the pickled feet and ears of pigs. Here’s another Christmas colouring activity for you – imagine finding that on your Christmas table today!

THE BOAR'S HEAD AT CHRISTMAS.

“ With garlandes gay and rosemary.”