Twelve Days of Christmas Word Search

Christmas is a twelve-day festival, each day being a different Saint's day. During the Tudor period, each and every one of the twelve days was celebrated. Save for the care of animals, all work was forbidden, beginning again on Plough Monday, which was the first Monday after Twelfth Night. There is of course a very well-known song called 'The Twelve Days of Christmas'. Can you find all of the gifts from the song in the grid below?
